

 Données détaillées Obtenir

Six principles of effective accountability.

Auteurs: Reeves, Douglas B.

Source: Harvard Education Letter; March/April 2002, Vol. 18 Issue 2, p8-7, 2p

Type de document: Article

Sujets: Educational accountability

Résumé: Principles of effective school-based accountability outlined by Douglas B. Reeves, chairman and founder of the Center for Performance Assessment and the International Center for Educational Accountability, at a recent forum hosted by the Principal's Center at the Harvard Graduate School of Education are presented. The principles relate to congruence, specificity, relevance, respect for diversity, continuous improvement, and focus on achievement rather than norms.

ISSN: 87553716

Numéro d'accès: 507751113

Base de données: Education Full Text (H.W. Wilson)

Outils

 Imprimer E-mail Sauvegarder Citer Exporter Permalien Ajouter aux favoris